Self-Interest vs. Altruism in the Global Era: how society can turn self-interests into mutual benefit, which Midwest Book Review praised with the following words: “Stating that society’s future relies on cooperation of people to work together for society, stating that much of society’s degradation in recent decades has been the result of narcissism and greed, Self Interest vs. Altruism is a curious and recommended read.”

The Psychology of the Integral Society, also recommended by ForeWord Reviews: “What’s expressed in The Psychology of the Integral Society should get people thinking.”

Like a Bundle of Reeds: why unity and mutual guarantee are today’s call of the hour, of which Prof. Kalman J. Kaplan of Chicago University wrote, “This is a profoundly intelligent, well-rounded, and highly readable book probing serious questions of our age: the role of the Jews in history, the relationship between individuality and community, the ubiquitousness of anti-Semitism, and its continuous morphing into new malignant forms.”
